

CONNECTICUT SOCIETY OF PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS
Presents the

2007 NSPE Ethics Forums

Conflicting Interests

Wednesday, September 5, 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM (1 Contact Hour/PDH)

Conflicting Interests: The panel will discuss cases dealing with issues like engineers accepting financial consideration, direct or indirect, from outside agents in connection with the work they have performed, ethical practices for promoting engineering services, and recommending your own company in a bidding process.

Employment Practices

Wednesday, October 10, 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM (1 Contact Hour/PDH)

The panel will tackle the ethics of soliciting the clients of a former employer, signing confidentiality and non-solicitation agreements, and misrepresenting qualifications.

Ethics of Agreements

Wednesday, November 14, 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM (1 Contact Hour/PDH)

The panel will address the issues of using contingency agreements, including indemnification clauses for specific purposes in contracts and reporting the violation of a copyright.

These are on-line webinars with panelists including Arthur Schwartz, NSPE Deputy Executive Director & General Counsel

Registration: Members $60 for all three or $25 per session, Nonmembers $90 for all three or $35 per session. Includes a light lunch. Sessions are teleconferences from NSPE held at the Connecticut Society of Professional Engineers, 460 Smith Street, Ste K, Middletown, CT 06457.
